

NIKKY

Passionate with teratology, she gets involved with video at a young age, (in front of a super8, the 1st of december 1974). She experiments video web applications realizing a lot of direct-on-line for Repubblica.it during Genova G8 and for Radio Dj Tv. In 2001 after working in strawberry fields and during the crash of the new economy, she founds www.deliriouniversale.com and starts vjing in a collective of artists called FLxER (<http://www.flxer.net>) where she realizes version 2.0 of the free software flxer and a structure for the community where to share tools, instruments, languages and to show representative qualities of the web site users.

She made about 600 shots, 400 available on line. In 2004 founds Radio DD.com, a radio-on-line that programs independent music; in the same year she joined Pigneto Quartet, where she sings and performs. Since a few year she dedicates herself to everyday life following the project "Jemma Temp". Through her, Nikki build the common past and present of an heroin that represents every woman mainly, through photography, using new instruments of communication like photoblog and photocommunity. This project, thanks to the cooperation with the musician Cristiano Gullotta and the contertenor Maurizio Rippa, becomes the video section of Re:joyce, where she creates a live movie with micro-animations and fotografies.